PUBLICATION FEES:

Dear Author, As costs are involved in every stage of the publication process, like manuscript handling from submission to publication, peer-review, copy-editing, typesetting, tagging and indexing of articles, Electronic composition and production, hosting the final article on dedicated servers, electronic archiving, server and website update and maintenance, supporting sales and marketing costs to ensure global dissemination and administrative and overheads, the author is asked to pay an article publication fee.

- A publication fee of Rs.2000/- ($150) for Single Author and Rs.3000/- ($200) for Multiple Authors is payable for manuscript ACCEPTED for publication.
- The publication fee must be paid prior to publication.
- There length of research papers/articles should not exceed 15 PAGES. The length of paper should be strictly adhered.
- There are no extra charges for colour figures.
- The article accepted for publication will processed further towards publication after the author pays the publication fees.

NOTE: If anybody do not have funds to pay publication fee, he/she will have an opportunity to request the Editor for fee waiver through the Head of his/her Institution/Department/University with the reasons, because IJTC-IIARTC does not want fees to prevent the publication of worthy work, however Publication fee waivers or discounts are granted on a case-by-case basis to authors who lack funds. To apply for a waiver or discount, one can request during the submission process.
